Review: The name of this movement "Arise and Organize" is taken from the title of one of Mao Tse-tung's lectures. This booklet, divided into 18 chapters, was prepared for party workers who are promoting the organization of peasant mutual aid and cooperative movements in the countryside. The "Arise and Organize" Movement frankly states that the individual farm economy is the basis for the feudalist economy and that the purpose of organizing peasants into mutual aid groups and producer cooperatives is to teach the peasants the value and advantages of a collective economy. Explains the meaning of organize (mutual aid and cooperative groups), the principles of mutual aid and voluntary participation, and gives details on the organization and regulation of mutual aid teams and producer cooperatives.
